What are the rules of the Young Thinker forum?

1. You must be under 25 years old.
2. You must live, go to school/university, or work in the ACT.
3. If you want what you send us to be shared, then we need your permission. Your name will only be shared or published if you tell us you want it to be.
4. You have the right to be recognised as the person who created your work. In some circumstances, we may need to contact you to check what you would like us to do to uphold your rights.
5. If you are under 12 years old, you need the permission of a parent or guardian to send us material. (Your parent or guardian doesn't have to agree with what you say though.)
6. We will not share your material if it could harm, hurt or offend other people, or if it discriminates against people.
7. If you send through a video recording, we will not share the video if you or anyone else can be recognised in the recording. For example, if it shows your face or the faces of others.
8. If we have concerns or worries about your safety or wellbeing, or someone else's safety or wellbeing, we may have to share your information.
